

INTERNAL ORGANIZATION: BOARD-SUPERINTENDENT RELATIONSHIP

The Board may delegate to the superintendent some or all of its executive powers so as to permit the superintendent to manage the schools within the Board's policies. The superintendent is the District's chief administrator and is responsible to the Board.

Legal Reference: Reviewed 1995, 2002
